They pilot from the ground

PRINCETON - How do you fly a plane with your feet on the ground?

Ask Steve Kovacs, Princeton organizer for the Jet and Scale Rally to be held in Princeton on September 25 and 26 at Princeton airport. Kovacs flies his own planes by remote control, and those are the kind of planes to be flown at the September rally.

Kovacs has built 20 scale model planes, of which 14 are still flying. He and a handful of other local people enjoy building and flying remote controlled model aircraft.

The planes can cost anywhere from $250 to $20,000 each, Kovacs says. Ducted fan and turbine planes (jets) will be coming to Princeton. They range in cost from $3,000 to $40,000.

These planes range in size from seven to eight feet long with a four-foot wingspan.

Vandals damage school

PRINCETON - Between the evening of August 8 and the morning August 10, Princeton Secondary School was damaged by vandals. The person or persons smashed one window, broke sprinkler heads, and painted graffiti on the field house. A section of fence was cut.

Princeton RCMP ask anyone with information regarding this latest outburst of vandalism in the Princeton area. Call 295-6911.

There are many kinds of remote controlled model aircraft engines: two-stroke, four-stroke, radial, electric, ducted fan and turbine. As engines vary, so does fuel. Nitro-methane is the most common, followed by gasoline. Speeds range from an average of 120 mph to 220 mph.

"You need good hand/eye co-ordination," Kovacs says, "and a deep pocketbook when co-ordination doesn't work."

There are 69 clubs in B.C. for people who fly remote-controlled model aircraft. In the lower mainland area, there are waiting lists of people wanting memberships. Some come to Princeton on weekends because there is no airspace time for them at the coast. Kovacs enjoys his hobby. In his view, it is a skill that can be enjoyed year-round, and costs no more than a season of playing

Thirty-five model aircraft pilots have confirmed they will be coming to Princeton for the rally in September. They are coming from B.C., Alberta, Washington, Idaho, and perhaps a few from Montana and Oregon.

There will be no cost to spectators to come and watch. Kovacs encourages people to bring their lawn chairs and plan to stay awhile. A concession stand will be available and washroom facilities will be on site.

Indian Band sends invitation to festival

SIMILKAMEEN - Lower Simil- and Saturday, and a salmon barkameen Indian Band (LSIB) invites everyone to participate in their "First Annual Similkameen Valley Festival and Feast" to be held at Ashnola Camping and Pow-Wow Grounds from September 3 to 6.

Local band member and caretaker for the Ashnola Campground, Wayne Eustache, is coordinating the event featuring the local "Blackbirds Band" on Friday night, horseback riding and mini pow-wows on Friday becue on Sunday. There will also be face painting, apple bobbing and more. Artists and craftsmen can rent space to sell their products. Some local service clubs are serving breakfasts and providing concessions.

The LSIB welcomes everyone to this weekend of fun and friendship, a fundraiser for Ashnola Campground upkeep and repairs. Posters have been put up in the Okanagan, Kamloops and Merritt.

Child hit by pick-up

PRINCETON - At the intersection of Copper Mountain Road and Highway 3, near the RCMP detachment office, a driver from Mission, driving a pick-up truck in the eastbound lane, struck a seven year old Princeton boy. Fortunately, the driver saw the boy on the side of the highway and slowed his vehicle, as he was afraid the boy might run out in front of him.

The boy wanted to cross the highway, and was watching only the traffic coming in the westbound lane. He suddenly ran out in front of the eastbound truck as the driver was trying to stop.

A number of witnesses saw the accident and quickly came to the child's aid. He was taken by ambulance to Princeton General Hospital and was released shortly afterward, suffering from bruising and some scrapes.

Princeton RCMP say "it was only the alertness of the driver of the eastbound pick-up that prevented this incident from being much

Murder charges stayed by Crown

PRINCETON - After an extensive RCMP investigation into the December 1998 homicide of Phen Drushka, RCMP arrested Jason Richard Roy on June 25, 1999. Roy was charged with second degree murder.

After further review of the evidence available at this time, and in consultation with the RCMP, Crown Counsel has directed that a Stay of Proceedings be entered pursuant to Section 579 of the Criminal Code. The RCMP are in agreement with the Crown's deci-

Rain washes out art show

PRINCETON - The threat of rain after a night of rain prompted Arts Council sponsors to postpone the Sights and Sounds arts festival to August 28. Plans for the festival have not changed, and the Arts Council regrets having to disappoint the public on August 14.

All of the exhibitors, vendors, musicians and others who were planning to participate in the festival are asked to contact organizers to confirm their participation on August 28. Anyone who would have liked to exhibit or participate on August 14, but did not reserve, is asked to consider doing so on August 28.

21 days to go!

A motorhome pulling a boat caught fire while crossing the bridge on Highway 3 on Friday morning and pulled over near the Chamber of Commerce parking lot. The driver and lone occupant had purchased fuel in Princeton and had noticed the smell of gasoline in the cab. He was advised to go to a mechanical repair shop on the east side of town, but the fire started before he could reach the shop. Princeton Fire Department rushed to the scene but were unable to save anything but the boat. The driver, a 71 year old man from Trail, was not injured. Highway 3 was blocked by firefighting equipment for 30 minutes, and traffic backed up in both east and west lanes.

Teen centre plans street fair of fun and funds

PRINCETON - Area 120, the teen drop-in centre on Veterans Boulevard, now averages 10 people per night. On one evening, the total climbed to 43, and there were 30 on another night. There is no doubt that the centre is gaining credibility and acceptance as a good place to be. Renovations and a great clean-up have made a difference, as well as the constant effort of Ally Murphy and Spencer Coyne.

Many people and businesses in town have given support to Area 120. Princeton Esso allowed their lot to be used for the successful Area 120 car wash. Princeton Video and #1 Video have given youth their support with good viewing material. Dan from Rustler's Meats has assisted with hot dogs and hamburgers.

On August 19, Area 120 will hold a bottle drive. The youth are asking residents to donate their bottles so they can be traded in to raise money for Area 120. The youth must raise money to support the costs of operating their drop-in centre.

On Saturday, August 21, the Youth Street Fair will happen in the cenotaph area. A dunk tank will see special guests take a soaking. A car and car stereo show offers awards for the best and worst cars. Youth will put on an art show, and there will be crafts for kids. There will be merchandise booths, informations stalls, live music, food and refreshments.

"So get down to the Cenotaph and be a part of Area 120 and the coolest community in the Southern Interior" is the rallying

The Youth Street Fair will last from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Further fundraising will take place on August 28, with a yard sale outside Area 120. It will start at 9:00 a.m. and last until there are no more buyers. People who support the concept of a teen centre are asked to donate items in reasonably good condition for resale. These items can be dropped off at Area 120 Tuesday to Saturday, 7 - 11 p.m. (No used clothing, please)

Fair calls for talent

SIMILKAMEEN - The Amateur Musical Talent Show will be held for the eighth year at Summerland Fall Fair on September 10 and 11. It is open to people living in the Similkameen Valley.

There will be one run-off with six top finalists from the show on Friday evening to go to the final run-off on Saturday afternoon, where winners share in the prize money of $150 for first, $100 for second and $50 for third. Judging is done by the audience on stage presentation, artistic talent, young vs. old entertainers, singing vs instrument playing and so on. The object is to keep talent at an equal level and provide the venue for new amateur entertainers to perform in front of an audience and show real talent, a very large and courageous move for many people. To allow for fair play, there is no artificial assistance allowed such as a smoke machine, special lighting, backdrops or other, and known professionals are excluded. Past winners in first, second and third categories in the past five years will not be allowed to

Other rules are: either sing or play an instrument, no rock bands, perform two full musical selections, will accept 12 entries plus one on standby. There is no entry fee, but entries must be in the hands of officials by August

How much would you pay to see these guys shave their heads? Sgt. Tom Payne (left) and Cst. Mike Fox say they will do it if people give money to support Canadian Cancer Society. See story.

Local constabulary will shave their heads for Cancer donations

PRINCETON - RCMP are hosting a head shave event in Princeton! They will be asking people to encourage them to go bald by giving a donation. The question is this: how much will people pay to see a head shaved, and who would they pay the most to see go bald before their eyes?

Princeton RCMP will host a head shave on September 15 at 4:00 p.m. at Overwaitea. Sgt. Tom Payne will be leading the field of police officers having their heads shaved. Constables Steve Barton and Mike Fox will also be under the knife. Auxiliary Constables Mike Neilson, Brent Franklin and Brian Hurd will participate.

There will be a special appearance by Cst. Raymond Kinloch, who will have his head shaved for the event!

"Cops for Cancer" hats and pins will be sold on location, and there will be a hot dog barbecue on hand for anyone suffering hunger pains. All money from the sales of hats, pins and food will be donated to the Canadian Cancer Society.

The head shave is a fundraising event in support of the Canadian Cancer Society. It started in 1994 in Edmonton, Alberta, when a police officer, Sgt. Gary Goulet befriended a young boy who was from suffering Chemotherapy had caused the boy to lose his hair and he suffered the usual teasing from the other kids as a result. Sgt. Goulet befriended the boy, offering him moral support through his illness, and strove to make the boy feel that he could persevere and beat

Sgt. Goulet shaved his own head to further express his solidarity with his young friend. Other officers in Edmonton joined in the cause and a fundraising effort was established with the objective of raising money for the Canadian Cancer Society.

"Cops for Cancer" now extends across Canada, and has raised well over $1,000,000, since it is beginning in Edmonton.

This year "Cops for Cancer" will feature a wide series of events. As the main event in September, a group of bike riders from various enforcement agencies throughout the Okanagan and Interior will ride for 10 days covering over 700 kilometers. The ride will start and end in Kelowna, stopping at up to 22 communities including Princeton. As the riders approach each stop en route, they will be joined by members of the community, both RCMP and civilian, with their arrival in town signalling the start of a local "Cops for Cancer" Several Princeton = event. Detachment members will be involved in the bike ride.

Donations can be made at Princeton RCMP Detachment. Receipts will be issued by the Canadian Cancer Society to those requesting them for donations of $10 or more.

Keremeos flies Old Glory

by Laurel Arnold

KEREMEOS - An American flag, and a sign saying "Cattleman's Association" will hang on Victory Hall on Friday afternoon, August 20, as Dawn Productions of Burnaby, B.C. films its "modern western," made for television movie, "By Dawn's Early Light."

At its regular meeting August 9, Keremeos Council granted permission for the film company to hang the flag and sign. They decided to charge the film makers a fee for using the hall.

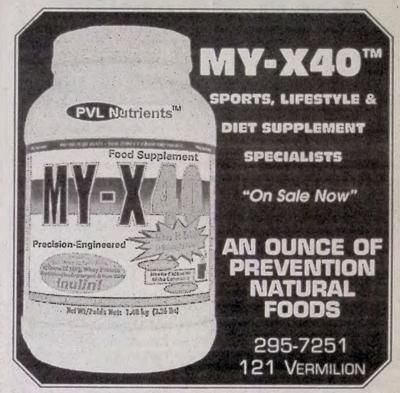

In his August 8 letter to Mayor Stranart, Dawn Production's location manager.

Mark Gamache, says, "I am very aware that Fridays were a day we avoid filming on due to high traffic volume. I am hoping that by starting later in the day this will not pose a problem. We would use professional flag people to divert traffic off of Main St. We would not require any businesses to close and would post signs stating that 'All Businesses are Open as Usual'. "

Mayor Stranart reported to Council that, due to lack of accommodation, the movie company had to change its mind about staying in Keremeos during filming.

Casting has been completed for the movie to be filmed throughout the Okanagan-Similkameen, and will star well-known actor Richard Crenna as a grandfather who decides to take his grandson back to California via horseback.

After many years of service, Christiane Gosselin has dropped her title as Chamber of Commerce manager and has moved on to Community Skills Centre this week.

A number of business moves and changes are taking place in Princeton.

Christiane Gosselin has just finished her longstanding job with Princeton and District Chamber of Commerce and has moved on to a part-time job at Princeton and District Community Skills Centre. Gosselin says she has enjoyed her years as Chamber Manager, but has added responsibilities at home which makes a part-time job more suitable for her now.

"I have had excellent support Chamber members," from Gosselin told the News Leader, "I enjoyed working for the Chamber."

Stan and Natalie Taylor have opened Your Dollar Store With More in Princeton Plaza. They come to Princeton from Ft. St. John, in their second business venture. They like the retail business, and really wanted to come to Princeton. Stan's mother, Georgina Taylor, lived in Princeton until two years ago, and their visits to her convinced them they should move here.

The new store will have extended hours on Thursday and Friday until 8:00 p.m. and will be open from noon to 5:00 p.m. on Sundays. Regular daily opening time is 9:00 a.m.

Alan Balmer will own L & S Grocery on September 1, and is planning a slight change of name. In the meantime, he is selling wood products by Dave Errington and planning a computer training centre adjacent to the continuing grocery store operation. He continues to sell fabrics and videos. It is shaping up like a "general store" environment. L & S is located on Vermilion Avenue across from Best Western.

That area is the site of Similkameen Christian Centre, at 219 Vermilion Avenue, operated by Pastor David Machin, in the last half of the building, sharing an entry with the Academy of Learning. Machin has an attractive sanctuary and office, as well as an area for Accelerated Christian Education.

Lawyer Robert Wicks will soon be hanging his shingle on the same town block, next to Rick's appliances. Princeton Light and Power has purchased the building in which Wicks has had his law office since 1990.

At the other end of town, Happy Crafters is closing, and Kevin Acres is moving into the same location. Kevin Acres has been doing business at the rear of the building occupied by the Spotlight.

"We will open in our new location on August 31," says Keith Olsen, co-owner of Kevin Acres.

Council praises Museum volunteers

PRINCETON - Mayor Randy McLean offered high praise to the Museum Society at the August 3 Town Council meeting following a report from Councillor Kathleen Clement of a busy weekend.

Over 200 people toured the museum on the August long weekend, 135 of whom visited the Allison family archives special feature in the museum base-

"Take Council's compliments to the Museum Society for the excellent work they are doing," Mayor McLean instructed Councillor Clement, "The museum seems to be revived with all the volunteer help."

Vandals cause concern

On August 9, Princeton RCMP received four complaints of broken windowns on parked motor vehicles, continuing the rash of vandalism hitting Princeton this

The damage to the vehicles occurred overnight and all were in the downtown area Fenchurch Avenue, Lime Stree, Bridge Street and Angela Avenue. Sometime early last week, vandals using blue spray paint desecrated the painting of Susan Allison which is on the wall of the Royal Canadian Legion building facing Bridge Street.

Anyone with any information pertaining to these crimes is asked to call Princeton RCMP at 295-6911 or CrimeStoppers at 1-800-337-8477.

Highway sign issue: Where and when?

PRINCETON - Members of Princeton Exhibition Association and the Fall Fair Board raised the issue of highway signs once again. President George Elliott stated the PXA had been assured by the Department of Highways the "Fair Grounds" signs would be in place for Racing Days at the end of June. The signs are still not in place, and Fall Fair Board members are becoming agitated over the ongoing delay.

Some discussion took place as to what further efforts the PXA could make to hasten the construction of the signs. Members discussed making a presentation to Town Council to appeal for support for the soonest possible delivery of the signs. Councillor George Armstrong assured PXA members that Council would give their support.

The Allison family, who held their historic family reunion at the fair grounds on the August long weekend, was the subject of complimentary remarks at the August 10 meeting of PXA. Not only did the family pay their $500 grounds use fee promptly, but left the grounds and buildings remarkably clean.

Skip Jones, who had done a walk-around inspection, said the Allison family had done the best clean-up he had seen in all his years with the PXA.

A great deal of painting has been done this summer at the grounds, and Fall Fair President Bert Blanchette asked for repairs to the wooden sidewalks, as they were showing rot problems, and requested a coat of paint on the Blanchette was assured the painting and repairs would be done in time for the fair.

POINTS OF VIEW

OUR VIEW=

Premiers are right

At last week's provincial Premiers' conference, the Premiers told the federal government it is time to lower taxes. They are right.

The federal government, after ten years of crying poor and keeping taxes high, now have a ten billion dollar surplus! Governments are not supposed to tax to raise a surplus, they are to levy taxes according to need.

There are a few other things the federal government has been doing that the average Canadian taxpayer does not know. The Canadian Taxpayers' Federation has list upon list of businesses who borrowed our tax dollars from the federal government and did not pay back what they owed. In addition, the federal government has been "forgiving" loans made to foreign countries to the tune of hundreds of millions of dollars. All of this is being done while our taxes remain high. Imagine what the surplus would be if our federal government stopped lending money to private business and foreign countries!

In our view, the first tax that should go is the Goods and Services Tax (GST). This is the tax that is so detrimental to everyone, right at the pocketbook level. It is all very well to say the government will give back some of the GST to poorer people, but first, those poor people have to spend the money, and the GST makes everything seven per cent more expensive.

The GST is extremely expensive for business as well as for consumers. The GST is a major business expense because it involves hours and hours of work to add up the tax and prepare the forms to send to the government, who will further tax people if the payment is late. All this is on top of greater consumer resistance to buying.

We Canadians are a bunch of dumb clucks to take this, but the Liberals are dumber clucks: they could be re-elected if they cut the GST now, but will never again be elected on a promise to cut the GST!

YOUR VIEW

Let's fight vandalism

Dear Editor;

As the person who painted the portrait of Susan Allison which is located on the front of the Princeton Legion, I wish to express my appreciation for your concern shown by commenting on the vandalism to this mural. There is, however, something which I would like to say to the citizens of Princeton and that is: the mural belongs to you.

I donated to you my time and the materials and equipment (gladly, and with thanks for being embraced by this community!), and the Princeton Legion donated the wall on which to paint.

The reason I am making this statement is that I feel that we all need to take responsibility for keeping our town free from destructive behaviour and the kind of damage that says to visitors that we have no way of controlling what goes on around us.

Since I have no time for complaints that have no possible solutions attached, I am suggesting that we re-examine a citizen's patrol. We have had a rash of unacceptable behaviour on our streets this summer which includes random acts of vandalism, racing cars heard downtown late at night with mufflers that do not pass safe noise levels and an unpleasant gang which roams the streets around one o'clock in the morning. Our RCMP cover an area from Manning Park to Tulameen to Hedley and cannot be expected to sit downtown every night hoping to be in the right place at the right time.

In a perfect world, parents would always know where their kids were, and adults would never be jerks, but hey, this is the real world and nothing will change until we are sick to the teeth and willing to find a healthy solution. What do you say, people?

Sincerely, Merrilyn Huycke

B.C. Seniors need a network

by Ben Swankey, Consultant, B.C. Old Age Pensioners Organization

An Ad Hoc Committee made up of leaders/activists from major senior organizations in the province has taken the initiative in organizing a special one-day conference of senior groups to be held in Vancouver at the Seniors Centre at 411 Dunsmuir on October 29, 1999. Its purpose is to explore the possibilities of establishing a central body through which senior groups could present their common concerns to all levels of government. Last year, seniors across Canada were faced with an effort by Ottawa to cut our old age pensions by a new scheme called Seniors Benefit. We succeeded in defeating that.

"Indications are," the Ad Hoc Committee notes, "That in the millennium and beyond, one of the problems seniors will face will be the survival of our publicly funded health care system. Ottawa is being pressured by big U.S. health insurance corporations Continued on Page 7.......

Leave Grandma alone!

Dear Editor:

The recent vandalism to the Susan Louisa Allison painting on the Legion has brought to mind the fact that none of the family have publicly thanked Merrilyn Huycke for painting the portrait.

Thank you Merrilyn, you have done a wonderful job, the portrait has been a great asset to the beautification of our community!

The Allison family was proud to see Susan's portrait on a wall in our town as she was one of the first founders of Princeton. We were glad to share her with the townspeople - but now I am not so sure.

I wonder if the vandals who drew with felt pen and sprayed blue paint on the portrait ever had a Grandmother or Great Grandmother who meant something to them. Well I do!

If you would like to draw on a portrait, draw on you own Grandmother's and leave mine alone!

bservations from a B.C. road runner

by Joe Schwarz, local philosopher and humorist

Travel the highway today and you'll immediately realize by the heavy traffic that August is the height of the tourist season., a welcome time for many small towns in the rudderless economic recession. Some places, it seems the main industries are yard or garage sales. The communities appear to be in unison in pushing for industry or business activity of all sorts, whether it is a factory or the arts and crafts.

Our towns are spruced up and working hard to capture the tourist, a big thing for students, many of whom are finding it difficult to find a job. The best deal in any town is the park and the slushie". If you don't know what that is, ask your grandkids.

Interestingly, you'll note the date on most of our highway bridges is in the 1950's. They, and our highways built at that time, haven't changed much but the traffic has increased immensely. You wonder how they were able to build them and balance their budget. Just imagine the incredible amount of employment there was. The way things are now, you can get one slow driver from Tulameen, who's been sent to Princeton for a head of lettuce by the wife, and he sees he's got a captured line-up behind him, and realizes that for the first time in his life, he's leading a parade. Because B.C. has very few passing lanes, this driver would lead the whole parade to Reno if he had enough gas. I don't think the

The ferry system is considered part of our highway system. Too bad we couldn't develop a paddle wheeler for tourists that would embark at Hedley and disembark in Coalmont on a kind of Granville Island development on the island opposite the rock slide.

After all, word is they are going to build a big new ferry in Nelson, replacing the 1950 vintage ferries on Kootenay Lake. The run is the longest free ferry ride in B.C., if not the world, about 35 minutes

Nelson has a lot of history and the fact that you and I are going to pay for it allows us a few fast questions, especially for history's sake. Is it part of the red ink ferry line? Will the funnel sport the green piggy bank emblem? (That would represent the piggy bank Premier Harcourt displayed in explaining how provincial budgeting would be no different than that of a family.) Will there be a sundeck on the afterdeck expressly for "Nanaimo" type bingo? The difference of course is the profits can fade into anywhere, except charity. Will the main deck have a casino license mainly for shooting dice - truly, then, a "floating" crap game. This would, naturally, be for high rollers from Alberta. In case you didn't know, Alberta is where the employed people live.

Yes, there is nothing like a good interesting highway system for tourism, something we can always work on.

and also by some Canadian organizations speaking for doctors to privatize health care in our country and to introduce the American "for profit" system

The Ad Hoc Committee also warns International trade agreements which Canada has entered, such as NAFTA (North American Free Trade Agreement) and WTO (World Trade Organization) have clauses that could be used to undermine our publicly funded non-profit medicare system in Canada.

Unlike other provinces, B.C. seniors do not have a central grouping to address their common needs. B.C. has 462,000 seniors.

"Think of the power they would have," says the Ad Hoc Committee, "if they all spoke with one voice. No government could ignore them."

1999 has been declared by the United Nations as the International Year of Older Persons (IYOP). The Ad Hoc Committee suggests that "one of the best contributions we could make to the IYOP as well as to our own welfare, would be to establish some form of co-operation between senior groups in B.C. where we could exchange experiences and views and, when necessary, jointly present our recommendations to government."

All senior groups are invited to attend. Further information can be obtained by contacting: The B.C. Seniors Network Ad Hoc Committee, c/o Wil Holland, Secretary, 34850 Gleneagles Place, Abbotsford, B.C. V2S 7G5 or phone 604-853-7632 or fax 604-853-9761.

Heart Food

by Dave Machin

The primary message that God has for people is this: "He loves ." At the best of times, life does not co-operate with us. Just when everything appears to be going along quite well, something comes along to try and upset our applecart. We've heard these words, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever (that's you) believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life" many times before. We've read about God's love. We've heard about it. But I don't think many of us have really believed it. If we did, it would totally change everything about us and everything around us. It's that love that caused Jesus to lay down His life for us and to experience for Himself all the pains and weaknesses that we experience. It's that love that says to us, even when we feel so unworthy, "come to me and get what you need. Don't be shy about it. I've been there". The bible tells us to "come boldly to the throne of grace that you may obtain mercy and grade to help in time of need." Think about it. God is in love with you - so in love He's given you all the healing, all the wisdom, all the wealth, all the strength you could ever need. "But what about my terrible past?" you might ask. That's what His mercy is for. It's taken care of your past. It's covered every sin and failure you ever had. All you have to do now is believe and receive His love. What a shame it is that people suffer at the hands of sickness and disease and every other cursed thing, just because they can't believe the love God has for them. Don't let that happen to you. Learn to believe the love God has for you. Believe the love. It's already been released in His word. God wants to have you know the reality of His love to you personally. God is good all the time. ## RCMP says vandalism is a community problem

by Laurel Arnold

KEREMEOS - According to Constable Ekkel of the Keremeos RCMP, vandalism is a community problem.

In his presentation to Keremeos Council at its regular meeting August 9, Ekkel said the police have a large area to cover and cannot be everywhere at once. He said they depend on the public to help by reporting incidents. He added the RCMP was trying to increase its staff for Friday and Saturday nights, usually their busiest times.

Constable Ekkel said he appreciated Council's efforts to reduce hiding places in Pine Park by cutting the bottoms off bushes, removing the exterior cement alcoves from public washroom doorways, and keeping the lights on at night.

Mayor Stranart said Council applied for a fifth RCMP member with the understanding "that as much as possible of the extra time would be for the evenings."

Ekkel explained that, though the Keremeos Detachment has increased by one general duty constable, sick days, courses, and people on leave can decrease the number of available staff.

Stranart said he thought that foot patrols seemed to be reasonably effective.

He said, "I don't think we are talking about stopping everything for the youth. Basically, what we are concerned about are the excesses."

He said he did not expect the RCMP to have the community "totally sanitized,"

Referring to vandals, he said,

Council wants fee review for landfill use

by Laurel Arnold

SIMILKAMEEN - Keremeos Mayor, J.C. Stranart says he hopes to present a review of landfill tipping fees at the August 19 Regional District meeting. He expected the review to be presented at a previous meeting, but there was no room on the agenda. He said they were planning to weigh Keremeos Disposal's truck to make sure the tipping fees were appropriate.

At the August 9, regular meeting, Keremeos Council briefly discussed the fact that the tipping fees review mainly concerned people with less that three bags per week who might feel they had to hold on to their garbage until they had enough for the minimum $5.00 charge.

"We are probably talking about a dozen people."

Ekkel replied that the RCMP conducts foot patrols at the Red Bridge and Kobau Park, He said they stop at the youth centre on youth nights.

He said, "We deal with the same individuals over and over," and added, when these individuals leave town, vandalism decreases, as it had from 1998 to 1999.

Stranart talked about Council's need to have regular discussions with the RCMP, to share mutual concerns, and mentioned previous difficulties he encountered when trying to arrange meetings. He said, "It's a two-way street." He hoped that the police would not be called to visit Council only when Council had a problem.

Stranart mentioned that some people complain to the Village Office instead of reporting incidents to the police, because they do not trust their own memory of the event, or they are afraid the lawbreaker might harm them.

Stranart and Ekkel briefly discussed solutions for repeat offenders. Stranart said though it does not work with everybody, people who have jobs are "less likely to vandalize."

Several times during his presentation, Ekkel stressed the importance of a unified community effort. He reviewed past difficulties concerning RCMP attempts to organize a Community Consultative Group. Many of the people who had been asked to participate were already very busy in public service.

He said, "We don't want the same people doing all the work."

Ekkel explained that the police force is "supposed to be a part of the community," saying it was founded on the idea that "the public is the police, and the police are the public."

He said "you can have a policeman on every block, but you'll still have crime if people aren't involved."

He mentioned that Citizens on Patrol (COPS) needs a few more volunteers, and perhaps something else to consider would be a neighbourhood watch program.

Council plans to will meet with the new officer in charge of the Keremeos Detachment, Sergeant Bauhuis, when he arrives mid-August.

New Cawston/Hedley School Principal arrives

by Laurel Arnold

SIMILKAMEEN - The new Cawston Primary and Hedley Elementary Principal has arrived! Originally from the Maritimes, Principal Christopher Philpotts obtained a B.A. in History and Philosophy from Dalhousie mostly Innuit. He was transferred to Yellowknife in 1989, where he taught all subject areas in several schools, became Vice Principal of Weledh school in 1995, and Vice Principal of N.J. MacPherson school in 1998. After that he says, "I applied for and became a successful candidate for the wonderful schools in Cawston and Hedley."

Philpotts says he heard great things about the Cawston-Hedley schools, that they are "very family oriented," with a "very positive atmosphere between the schools, the parents and the students."

Every summer, for many years, he has come with his wife Penny, and daughters, Katrina, eleven, and Natasha, seven, to stay with relatives in Penticton, so he is already somewhat familiar with the Similkameen. They have owned a home in Penticton for a couple of years, and are now house hunting in the Similkameen.

Christopher Philpotts

University in Halifax, a Bachelor of Education from the University of Calgary, and he is working on his Master's Degree. Beginning in 1985, he taught in Keewaten, now named Nunavut, at Qitiqliq school in Arviat, a community of 1400-1500 people,

The benefits of ETS are realized by shifting energy usage from high consumption (on-peak) hours to low consumption (offpeak) hours. During the off-peak hours, ETS heating equipment, converts electricity to heat and stores that heat. When the room thermostat calls for heat, this stored electric heat is discharged into the home or application to satisfy the heating requirements. The amount of heat stored in the core of the heater equipment is regulated in relation to weather conditions. A room thermostat monitors room air temperature and regulates heat delivery as needed, providing comfort 24 hours a day.

Students brighten life for residents of Ridgewood Lodge

PRINCETON - Ridgewood Lodge residents have had a busy summer of activities to spice up their daily lives, thanks to James Reid and Carmen Fraser-Beswick. The two university students, who are planning careers in the health field, have worked at Ridgewood-Lodge as activity coordinators. Both grew up in Princeton and graduated from Princeton Secondary School.

Activities planned for Ridgewood residents include a wine tour, drives to various places, tea at Colonial Inn in Hedley, a jaunt to the Grist Mill in Keremeos, pub nights and public swimming, along with barbecues and birthday parties on a regular weekly basis.

Reid says, "The goal is to enjoy life, and that equates with being healthy. Eating and sleeping well results from stimulation. Boredom has unhealthy results, and activity counteracts boredom."

Reid, age 20, will be attending third year sciences at Okanagan University College in Kelowna. His long term goal is to practice medicine. He has been working at Ridgewood Lodge since mid-May and will continue to August 28.

Carmen Fraser-Beswick will begin third year nursing at University College of the Cariboo in Kamloops. She started working at Ridgewood Lodge on July 5 and will work until September 3.

Reid and Fraser-Beswick works together to provide a higher quality of life for 21 Ridgewood Lodge residents and eight extended care residents, and an occasional respite visitor.

Riverbank fire burns a little too hot

by Laurel Arnold

KEREMEOS - Keremeos and District Fire Department was just finishing regular practice on August 5 when someone reported a fire, so the firemen were able to respond quickly. The individual who called reported seeing smoke and a "fair amount of flame" coming from beside the river bank near Sykes Crescent. Fire Department Media Relations Officer. Bud Coysdon, says firemen just "grabbed buckets of water from the river to put the fire out."

Coysden says about the people who started the fire, "We don't think they used good judgement, considering all the dry fuel and homes in the area."

He says the youth involved cooperated with the firemen and admitted that the fire was "bigger that they thought it should be." Though, in general, campfires are allowed, Bud Coysdon says, " We advised them not to have a campfire in the area."

LRMP wants all of Ashnola

by Laurel Arnold

SIMILKAMEEN - .Mayor J.C.
Stranart reported to Keremeos
Council's regular meeting August
9 that Okanagan Shuswap Land and Resource Management Plan (LRMP) table has not been able to reach a consensus on Ashnola land use and resource management. Stranart explained that the environmentalists want a protected area, but Keremeos is not in favour of including the entire Ashnola in such a plan.

After reviewing the situation at its July 15 meeting, and realizing a consensus could not be reached, Regional District has decided to forward the Ashnola land use information to the provincial government without a recommendation. Stranart reported he spoke to area "B" (Cawston ) director Bill Bush and area "G" (Keremeos Rural Hedley ) director and Regional District Chairman Roger Mayer, to see if the three of them could get together to work on the problem. Stranart said that basically the LRMP table report showed there was no room for any consensus. According to Stranart, the environmentalists will not budge, believing if a decision is left to the provincial government, it will side with them.

When interviewed, Thursday, August 12, Lower Similkameen Indian Band Manager Dixon Terbasket said that the Okanagan Native Nation, the first inhabitants of the Okanagan Shuswap Land and Resource Management area, were not invited to sit at the LRMP main table, they were asked to be only an advisory group, and were allowed only a brief time for comment.

PRINCETON - On August 19, Cindy Parolin took three of her children on horseback along a country road outside near Tulameen. Cindy attacked the cougar with a stick, distracting it while the older children took Steven, whose scalp was torn, to look for help. Cindy's battle with the cougar continued until Jim Manion arrived and shot the animal. Cindy did not survive the attack.

Cindy Parolin was awarded the Canada Star of Courage. The safe home program, on which she had worked so diligently, was named after hen Cindy will continue to be remembered for years to come for her courage, not only at the end, but throughout her life.

They built and raced their go-carts

PRINCETON - Girls rarely have an opportunity to learn woodworking, drafting, mechanics, and the use of appropriate tools, but the G.E.T.T. course gives them training and fun.

The first session ended last week with a barbecue for 10 students and their parents, followed by races. Go-carts built by two-girl pushed while the other steered, for the first lap, then they traded places for the second lap. The five-day course involves the summer recreation program, and Community Skills Centre for computer-aided drafting, then back to the arena for the actual construction. Lisa Panchenko is the instructor.

with Allison Aspinall as her assis-

The girls in the first course were the following teams: Rosie Brodie and Emily Flynn; Katie Quennell and Kari Ihlen; Renée Cleven and Randi Etheridge; Tori Lockwood and Ashley Goreas; Natalie Ihlen and Diane Wentland.

They followed a pattern to build the plywood body of the go-cart, then had to put the axles and wheels on the machine. After it was built and worked, then had to paint it. Some of the paint jobs were an extravaganza of colour. Skill training, in addition to computer-aided drafting, involved using a hand saw, an electric drill, a hammer, screwdrivers, wrenches, clamps, brackets, and sundry small items like washers and nuts. The girls discovered that a twoby-two board cut too long is much less a problem than one cut too short. Taking accurate measurements was one of the fundamental lessons learned.

Teaching a group of high-spirited unskilled youngsters is quite a challenge, but Panchenko and Aspinall were patient and firm. At the end, all of the go-carts worked well and the girls were justifiably proud of their achievement.

The second G.E.T.T. program begins August 23. This program is free of charge.

RE/MAX raises $1.3 million for 'Miracles'

For the fourth consecutive year, RE/MAX real estate associates from across Canada have raised over $1 million for the Children's Miracle Network.

The fundraising total was revealed at the June 5 and 6 Children's Miracle Network Telethon by Helga Wendt, RE/MAX of western Canada, at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida.

Cliff Shillington, Regional was pleased to Director, announce, "Our associates have shown that children and families are near and dear to their hearts. The best part about CMN is that each dollar donated stays in the local community, benefiting local children. We are so proud to be associated with this extremely worthwhile cause."

The 1999 contribution of $1.3 million is a new fundraising high for the real estate organization, who chose CMN as their key corporate charity in 1992. Last year, and for the past four consecutive years, RE/MAX has been the leading corporate contributor to CMN, thus far raising over $8 million in Canada. Collectively the RE/MAX International organization raised a total of over $4.3 million in 1999 for the charity, bringing their eight year total to a new high of over $22.5 million in North America.

Another extraordinary year of fundraising efforts means that over half a million patient visits were made possible in 1998 in western Canada alone. Sales associates' efforts range from RE/MAX Miracle Home Program (whereby participating RE/MAX associates pledge a portion of home sale commissions), to hot air balloon fundraising events, to charity golf tournaments. The family of Aimé and Margaret Hinse (deceased), which includes their seven daughters and three sons, along with their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, arrived at the campsite on July 29. Out of 96 family members, 68 were able to attend.

Other guests were Lindsay Sicker, Jeanette and Dougal Smith of Princeton, Jim and Donelda Massullo, their son Michael with his wife, Gaylene and two sons from Powell River,

The family enjoyed crib tournaments, bean bag tournaments and bingo games. Tim did a great job as bingo caller, as did Howard in giving out prizes.

Some of the visitors drove to Princeton to enjoy a round of golf.

The children had races along with other games, and enjoyed wading in the river.

In the evening, everyone took their chairs and formed a huge circle around the campfire to reminsice and have a lot of laughs. The weather was fabulous, the campsite had beautiful shaded trees. Everyone had a great time.

Everyone said their good-byes on August 3, and went their separate

COORDINATION OF TIMBER FOR SALE

The Merritt Forest District is in receipt of requests for both the purchase and sale of timber by individuals. To assist our clients, we are proposing the development of a "Private Timber Ledger". This ledger will indicate the volume of timber for sale by individuals as well as the name of individuals wishing to purchase timber. If you would like to avail yourself of this opportunity to advertise or purchase timber, please fax or send us a written note that indicates your name, phone number, whether you are purchasing or selling timber, the geographic location (nearest town) of the timber for sale (if selling), the volume for sale or required and the species for sale or required. Our intent is to display and pass out the ledger in an attempt to assist parties in coming together on the disposition of timber. Please note, that phone calls will not be accepted nor will clarification of submissions be sought. Incomplete submissions will not be entered on the ledger. Should you have any questions pertaining to the above, please contact Len Marsh at (250) 378-8400.

Thanks to local sponsors, 16 year old Katerina Henry of Princeton will compete in a 24 hour mountain bike endurance race on Labour Day weekend.

Kati challenges BC endurance ride

"Go Sun Country Girl!" has become a familiar cheer to Kati Henry as she flies down steep hill or climbs up hills. Kati, who is sponsored by Sun Country Cycle in Penticton, has become a familiar sight in the team's flaming golden jersey. For Kati, it has been the best mountain biking season ever. She has won every race that she has entered. She competed at two Canada Cup, on in Canmore, Alberta, and the other at Silver Star, three B.C. Cup Series (Crystal Mountain, Silver Star and (Mud'n'Madness), and three Okanagan Series (Summerland Action Quest, Kelowna Classic, and Apex Vertical).

Kati attended a mountain bike workshop for three days at Apex before Apex Vertical. She was one of 35 young people (only four girls attended) who benefited from the expertise of a national cycling coach. Level Four Coaches, and outstanding riders who took time from their busy racing schedules to help out.

On Labour Day weekend, Kati

Henry looks forward to being part of a junior team from Vernon who will be competing in the 24 Hours of Adrenalin race at Silver Star. She begins at noon Saturday and goes to noon Sunday. Her participation in this event has been made possible by the generous contributions of Overwaitea, Princeton Esso, Golden Hills Deli, Backroad Bikes, Keywest Motors, Neil and Sharon Anderson, and Kathy Berg. On September 12, Henry will do the last race of the B.C. Cup Series, and she stands an excellent chance of finishing first in that

Healthy living calls for regular physical activity now

by Linda Danallanko, PHN, Penticton Health Centre

It is mid-summer! There have been some very warm days, routines have changed with company, vacation, etc. For me, I'm having to do a fitness check as I have been sidelined by all of the above. There must be others out there with similar situations.

Health Canada's "Physical Activity Guide" reminds us that every little bit of physical activity improves health. Their recommendation is to choose a variety of activities from the following three groups:

1. Endurance - 4 - 7 days a week. Do continuous activity for your heart, lungs and circulatory sys-

Flexibility - 4 - 7 days a week.
 This includes gently reaching, bending and stretching activities to keep your muscles relaxed and joints mobile.

Strength - 2 - 4 days a week.
 These activities provide resistance to strengthen muscles and bones and improve posture.

Most people can start slowly. If you are not sure, consult a physician.

For a copy of the "Guide Handbook" and more information: 1-888-334-9769 or www.pagude.com You may also contact your local health centre for further information.

Lady golfers are lured to Princeton for a quilt

Princeton Golf Club was the location of a very successful tournament on Sunday, August 8, when 73 women competed for many fine prizes. Golfers came from Penticton, Osoyoos, Abbotsford, Cherry Grove, Fairview Mountain, Summerland, Logan Lake, St. Andrews and Merritt.

The biggest drawing card is always the coveted quilt made by members in the winter months. It is awarded to the Low Net winner. Paula Wagner, of Summerland, who shot a 73, was the lucky lady this year.

Violet Ward, who shot an 85, was overall Low Gross winner.

Princeton golfers collected some well-earned prizes for their excellent performances. Prize-winning results for local women were as follows:

Flight 1: second low gross - Barb Fraser

First low net: Jean Trewella Flight 3: third low gross - Judy

Flight 4: First low gross - Phyllis

Conway-Brown, first low net - Joan Angstadt, third low net -

Flight 5: second low gross -Lorraine Kirby, third low gross -Inez Wilkinson, third low net -Sheila Young.

Two local ladies, Linda Bell and Lorraine Kirby, won longest drive prizes in their respective flights. Seven ladies shared in the chip-in pot, and Jean Trewella won closest to the pin (KP) in her flight.

The out of town golfers were extravagant in their praise of our golf course, the hospitality shown them and the wonderful luncheon they have all come to expect at our clubhouse. A great deal of the success of our tournament was due to the hard work of Dinny Mullin, Fred Gee, Annarose Powell, Tara Atkinson (scorekeeping), John Welde (spotter) and lady members for selling tickets and setting the tables for the luncheon. Other contributions were made by Similkameen Vending and Rob Fulton.

Provincials next!

PRINCETON - Members of Kokanee Summer Swim Club have done some outstanding competitive swimming in the past few weeks. There were more than 14 best times reached this season.

"It's very exciting for me to see the improvements in stroke technique and development of the competitive and non-competitive swimmers," says head coach Lindsey Kovats.

On July 24 and 25, Kokanee competitive swimmers travelled to Revelstoke to compete. The long trip and bad weather did not pose a barrier to the determination of swimmers to excel.

"All swimmers did a great job," Kovats said. "Sportsmanship has been a key as well as personal bests. Goals are extremely important for anyone to achieve success. Most of my wonderful Kokanees have succeeded in my eyes and I am proud of each and every one of them."

On August 7 and 8, Kokanees travelled to the regional meet in Kamloops.

"The regional championship was full of excitement, energy, visualizing and miracles! " coach Kovats exclaimed. "Every single swimmer gave it their best and we are now sending Nigel Bertrand, Zach Brown, Jordan Hilton and Marlow Deiter to Provincials! And a Division 2 relay team of Jordan Hilton, Corbin Clement, Keaton Brown and Marlow Deiter made it!"

The swimmers reached their peak, physically, mentally and objectively. According to Kovats, it was perfect. The best races happened as the Kokanees were fifth and determined to finish in third with a heart-pounding best time.

Only the top three swimmers in each event proceed to the Provincials

"Way to go, Kokanees!" Kovats says, "We knew you could do it."
