Fire
Prevention
Week
October 3-9

Fire Prevention Week was established to commemorate the Great Chicago Fire in 1871 which destroyed more than 17,400 homes and killed more than 250 people.

Each year during Fire Prevention Week fire departments throughout Canada and the United States work to raise public awareness about the dangers of fire and how to prevent it.

Princeton Volunteer Fire Department Chief Eric Gregson says local firemen will visit local schools this week.

Plans will include demonstrations with a video presentation and information hand outs at the elementary schools and a fire drill at Princeton Secondary School.

To find out more about Fire Prevention Week online go to: <http://www.mcaaws.gov.bc.ca/firecom> or <http://www.nationsafetyregister.com>.

Society plans new building

*$3 million
a year budget marks
milestone 30*

It was an idea that grew to a three million dollar a year organization that has helped hundreds of local people live better quality lives.

The annual general meeting of Princeton and District Community Service Society, held September 27, marked the thirtieth such occasion. Assistant Executive Director Connie Howe presented members with an annual report including some of the history and photos from the past, and received a well-deserved round of applause for her work on the AGM booklet.

Accountant Derek Schreurs, of Cunliffe Schreurs Tupper, reviewed the year's balance sheet, remarking on the $2,965,069 budget that it "represents more than numbers on a page". He complimented the society on a "strong financial position".

Society President Joann Gabriel gave her report, noting the many services the society has brought to Princeton area. Gabriel recognized the original Board of Directors for the first year of operation, and the one remaining director, Dawn Johnson. She wondered if Princeton would have had these services if it had not been for the foresight of founder Joyce Fraser and those who supported her vision. She doubted Princeton area would have had the dedicated homemakers, Meals on Wheels, BC Transit, housing for special needs, Vermilion Court, the programs for the disabled, and the respite beds.

"I don't think Princeton would have all these programs today if it was not for Community Services and our administrators fighting for everything we have achieved. With all the cuts to health care and the small amount of funding that we receive at this end of the Okanagan Health District, I don't think it would have been feasible. I doubt that our elderly and developmentally disabled folks would still be living in our community as is occurring in other small communities across Canada."

BCTF President speaks locally

BC Teachers Federation President Jinny Simms spoke in Princeton last week.

In an interview with the News Leader Simms talked about the difficulties teachers face in small communities.

"Rural communities are being impacted quite negatively by smaller budgets."

Simms says the smaller budgets have led to school closures.

"There have been 113 school closures since the Liberals have been elected and that means over 20,000 students have been displaced."

It's not just students who are affected by these closures.

"We've lost 2,500 full-time equivalent teachers and that has hit small communities hard as we have fewer teachers who specialize available in the teaching system."

Simms points out funding for many programs has been cut by the Liberal government.

"Our most venerable students, those with special needs, are being impacted greatly."

Simms, a high school counselor from Nanaimo, is in the first year of her two year term as BCTF President.

She will be travelling to school districts throughout the province.

Judge scores Princeton's Fall Fair

George Tatton, President of B.C. Association of Agricultural Fairs & Exhibitions, visited Princeton on September 11 to judge our local Fall Fair. Overall scores were good, but there were some areas where he saw improvements could be made, and the final score for Princeton was only 65 percent of the total possible points. In exam terms, Princeton's Fall Fair ranked a C plus.

Three local organizations participating in the Fall Fair received top marks: Bunchgrass Quilters, Women's Institute and Princeton Fire Department. 4-H did very well, too, with scores in the 90 percent range in all of their displays.

It is unfortunate that the South Similkameen growers no longer put entries in the fruit divisions, as this division received the lowest scores due to lack of entries. By contrast, the egg division received top marks for number of entries and quality of the display.

Top marks for non-agricultural exhibits and events went to the portable sawmill, the chainsaw demonstration, mud bog, demolition derby and the children's playground. Agricultural events and exhibits received top marks, including the chariot and chuckwagon races, the sheep shearing demonstration, 4-H sheep and rabbit judging, and the farm equipment exhibits.

President Tatton included a lot of positive suggestions for further improvements, along with appreciative remarks about the Fall Fair poster about agriculture being the "Mother of Industries" and the good stage entertainment.

The Fair Board will take Tatton's suggestions to heart, but manpower is an increasing problem putting on the fair. Younger members and more volunteers are needed to do all of the work required to bring the scores higher.

As always, the Fall Fair Association members have begun planning for next year in hopes of achieving a higher score for the Similkameen Valley's agricultural fair. Anyone interested in becoming a member should attend the October 26 meeting. Students receive free memberships in the Fall Fair Association.

At this time, there are no students as members, but the Fall Fair Association has enjoyed having student members in the past. Although the name of the Association starts with "Princeton & District", anyone in the Similkameen Valley is welcome to join.

World Teachers' Day

Celebrate with the teachers in your community

October 5 is the eleventh annual World Teachers' Day, proclaimed by the United Nations to celebrate the millions of teachers everywhere who give of their knowledge and creativity to educate the next generation. Please join with teachers in our community to celebrate the value of teaching and the love of learning.

A message from the Princeton District Teachers' Union

Mayor Keith Olsen signed a proclamation last week to mark World Teachers' Day. He is joined by Robert Tarswell of the Princeton District Teachers' Association. The document reads: "The Town of Princeton, in the Province of British Columbia, hereby acknowledges October 5th, 2004 to be World Teachers' Day and further that we communicate our appreciation to the teachers in our public schools for the role they play in assuring the well-being of society."

Fair Board plans for 2005

The result of each Fall Fair is a new session of planning for the next fair, and Fall Fair Association members launched into forward planning in a big way at their September 28 meeting at the fairgrounds. In addition to the Countdown 2010 and review of the evaluation (which was better than last year), members made plans for changes for next year.

A new prize list brochure is in the works, with changes to a number of categories, particularly in Junior Fair. New policy regarding vendors will be implemented. A motion was passed to refuse entry of any vendor not meeting the standards expected by the fair in terms of permits, licensing and behaviour during past fairs (this applies to matters of courtesy, alcohol consumption, unreasonable demands). A new fee will be levied on vendors who want more than one electrical connection. The Board is consulting other B.C. fairs to examine their policies regarding vendors.

Despite less than perfect weather, higher insurance costs and previous financial loss on motorsports, the Fair Board bank balance showed a "break even" status, carrying forward the year's starting balance. There is still money to come in, but no great gains will be made this year.

Jenn Bernard brought forward the idea of soliciting small sponsorships by small businesses and individuals. She had done some research on it, and received a positive response. These sponsorships of $25, $50 or more could be designated for a specific part of the fair, such as children's activities, or entertainment, or prizes for a particular division. Members encouraged Jenn to go on with the plan.

Don Mare asked for support for the creation of a pace car to be used in parades and downtown to advertise the Fall Fair. He received approval for $150 toward the project.

Linda Pudsey presented an idea for a children's ID program and will work on that project.

Local students in the CAP course at Princeton Secondary have been participants in the fair in the past, and the school will be approached this year to see if that program will be available for Fall Fair 2005.

A sponsor appreciation dinner will be held Saturday, November 6. Sponsors and volunteers are invited to attend, and more information will be published in the next few weeks.

Community Services plan new building project

Gabriel praised the staff, the volunteers, and members of the Board for their dedication.

Executive Director Lynn Pelly announced a new construction project to begin next year. The society has received word that the Victoria Foundation has approved Community Services' proposal to replace the existing Mary Anne Apartment building with a one level four-bedroom home which will provide a housing alternative for residents requiring a higher level of support. The Mary Anne Apartment building was the first residential building acquired by the society in 1978 as a supported living home for residents leaving institutions.

A new Director, Janice Stevens, joined the Board of Directors this year. Elected with her were former Directors Ray Jarvis, Joann Gabriel, Russ Pederson, Ken Carlson and Jean Haugland. Torry Small and Gloria Stout will complete their two-year terms.

The Kettle Valley Railway in Princeton

A PRESENTATION BY AUTHOR BARRIE SANFORD

You are invited to attend this presentation on the history of the Kettle Valley Railway in the Princeton area. Barrie Sanford has written two books on the KVR and will present slides and give a one-hour presentation. He will also answer any questions.

Following Barrie's presentation, Michael McLaughlin will give a brief presentation on the economic potential of the KVR for Princeton and area.

There is no admission fee. Donations to the Museum Society will be accepted.

Communities for Kids Back in Action

The Communities for Kids table is a group of concerned parents, professionals and community members who meet on a monthly basis to discuss issues and programs for children aged birth to 6.

Our first meeting since the summer break is Wednesday, October 6 at John Allison Elementary from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. Babysitting is provided.

Our committee invites everyone to attend who is interested in the healthy development of children aged birth to 6.

We believe that children and families need support to grow and thrive. Members of our committee work with different Princeton organizations in the development of the Early Literacy & Gym time program, Little Folks Preschool Subsidy Fund and the Family Centre concept.

Communities for Kids believe in the importance of the whole community being involved and working together to support young children and families.

Children who receive nurturing care by age 6 are more likely to grow up healthy.

They are ready and motivated to do well in school, value their family and community, high self-esteem, a sense of purpose, and value a healthy lifestyle.

When their families and community give them positive opportunities they are more likely not to become involved in negative behaviors such as alcohol or drug abuse, dropping out of school, or become involved in crime. Together we can develop opportunities for children and families in Princeton.

If you are interested in attending please stop in at John Allison Elementary on Oct.6 or give Nadine a call at 295-7222 to learn more.

One of the great partnerships that developed through the Communities for Kids initiative in Princeton is the Early Literacy & Gym program for children aged birth to 6 and their caregivers. This program was developed at Vermillion Forks Elementary last year and has moved to our new primary school - John Allison Elementary.

The entire school is involved as teachers open their classrooms, students reading to preschoolers, professionals such as public health and speech pathology are on hand for screening, and active playtime in the gym is all incorporated into this hour of fun.

This program is starting up again on Wednesday, October 27th and will run the last Wednesday of the month each month for the entire school year.

Please join us at John Allison Elementary at 9:30 to 10:30 am. This is great place to have fun, meet fellow caregivers and professionals, and introduce your children to a positive school.

If you require more information about this program please call Nadine at 295-7222.

RDOS plans to avoid conflicts

At the annual convention of B.C. municipalities last month, representatives from the communities of Regional District of Okanagan Similkameen met to address problems common to all. One of the problems is lack of coordination of special community events within the South Okanagan and Similkameen.

For example, one community held a major show 'n' shine event on the same weekend as a neighbouring community, which spoiled both events. People who might have put vehicles in both, or spectators who might have attended both events, had to make a choice, thus reducing the number of vehicles and the number of spectators in both events. Communities agreed to compile a list of events their community expects to host in 2005. These lists will be sent to RDOS and conflicts will be identified, and communities will be notified of the conflicts. This will give these communities the opportunity to communicate and decide on who will change.

Some events, such as rodeos, the Peach Festival and Princeton's Fall Fair, are in a circuit with dates selected well in advance. These dates cannot be changed. Other events have the ability to change dates. Within Regional District, with coordination, each community can then expect the maximum attendance for their events.

At this time, there is no intention by RDOS to market the events.

Village ALR application sits in Victoria

The Village of Keremeos application to remove some properties from the Agricultural Land Reserve (ALR) was sent to Victoria on July 22. The community approved the new Community Plan at a public meeting earlier, which cleared the final hurdle for Keremeos to open more land for residential development. The matter is now in Victoria's hands.

The Land Commission has acknowledged receipt of the application, but according to Village administrator Bob Lafleur, approval of the application could take months.

The wait for approval means a wait for those property owners who plan to subdivide and sell, and a wait for those developers who plan to buy the land and build houses.

"Taste of Our Valley" is filling fast

The annual "Taste of Our Valley" event, hosted by Similkameen Country, is scheduled for October 23. This event brings local producers, manufacturers and artists together to showcase what the valley produces. Of the 18 booths available, 12 have already been reserved, with a number of them going to Princeton businesses. Anyone wishing to reserve a booth should contact Similkameen Country immediately.

Village furls flag project

Village Council's plan to have a community flag is on hold. Council advertised earlier this year for flag design submissions, and received one, which was a good design. However, the creation of the flag proved to be pricey. At $1,800 for one flag, Council took a second look at the project and put it on hold.

Construction is moving ahead quickly on the new RCMP station located at the intersection of Highway 3 and 3A, but local residents wonder if it will sit empty like the new school board office constructed years ago.

British Columbia The Best Place on Earth to Work.

There has never been a better time to work in British Columbia. The Province's growing economy is creating thousands of good jobs in a wide range of sectors throughout B.C.

FIRST IN JOB GROWTH

B.C. is leading the country in job growth with over 154,500 jobs created since December 2001 (Statistics Canada). In fact, over the last three years, employment in B.C. has grown by 8.7

per cent, well ahead of the 6.3 per cent national average (Statistics Canada). Today, there are more than 40,000 job openings (B.C. Ministry of Skills Development and Labour). And the future looks even better with an estimated 1 million job openings over the next decade (Roslyn Kunin and Associates, Inc.).

GROWING STRONG: A POSITIVE OUTLOOK FOR B.C.'S ECONOMY

The future has never looked brighter for B.C.'s economy. B.C. is well ahead of the national index for small and mid-sized business optimism for the third quarter in a row and is at its highest level since the Canadian Federation of Independent Business (CFIB) began regular quarterly reporting. (CFIB, Quarterly Business Barometer, June 30, 2004). With building permits at an all-time high and three consecutive months of double-digit growth in B.C. exports, there's good reason for such optimism. And it's why major financial institutions like the Toronto-Dominion Bank have predicted that B.C. will lead the nation in economic growth next year.

Breastfeeding: The Gold Standard

Join the Canadian breastfeeding community in celebrating World Breastfeeding Week. The theme this year is Exclusive Breastfeeding: the Gold Standard Safe, Sound, Sustainable.

Exclusive breastfeeding for the first six months provides all the nutrition that babies need to grow and is vital to baby's health. Exclusive breastfeeding for six months means that the baby receives only breast milk from his or her mother or from a human milk bank. This is taken either directly from the breast or in the form of expressed milk in a bottle or cup. No other foods or drinks are offered during this time with the exception of vitamin supplements or medication prescribed by the doctor.

While any amount of breastfeeding is beneficial, the World Health Organization recommends that breastfeeding should continue for two years or more, with solid foods being introduced after the first six months.

Exclusive breastfeeding is SAFE because it contains beneficial factors that help to prevent and/or fight gastro-intestinal, respiratory and ear infections. Breastfeeding also reduces the risk of allergies and asthma.

Exclusive breastfeeding is SOUND because the nutrients in breastmilk are of the right quantity and quality to promote optimal growth of infants.

Exclusive breastfeeding is SUSTAINABLE and saves money for your household. As long as the nursing mother is present, so is the food for the baby!

Breastmilk CAN provide all that your infant needs and requires for the first six months. This includes water, even in hot climates. To ensure that your baby gets enough milk, you need to:

Be confident that you can breast-feed and to know that your milk is the safest and soundest for your baby.

- Put your baby to breast as soon as possible after birth, in order to stimulate milk production

- Be sure that your baby is positioned at your breast properly so that she or he can suckle effectively. Ask for help if you are having problems.

- Let your baby nurse on demand. This means nursing your baby whenever she or he wants to - both day and night.

- Let the baby nurse for as long as he or she wants at each feed.

A baby who is less than six months of age and is receiving formula or solids is less hungry and takes less breastmilk. These other feeds do not increase a baby's intake they just replace breastmilk. And then as a result, your breasts start to produce less milk.

Trained breastfeeding support can help women to deal with their breastfeeding challenges and to meet their personal breastfeeding goals. Contact your local health unit for more information.

Living Past 100

DHEA fights fat, adds muscle

DHEA is a natural hormone produced daily by our bodies, but is regarded by most medical practitioners as a form of steroids. Over the counter sales of DHEA are not legal in Canada, but can be obtained in health food stores in the USA.

Our bodies manufacture DHEA from cholesterol (and you thought cholesterol was all bad?) The pituitary gland controls the production of DHEA through a secretion that stimulates the adrenals to use the cholesterol to manufacture DHEA. From DHEA, your body manufactures its own supply of a number of steroids, including estrogen and testosterone.

If you want to live past 100, you must have a good supply of DHEA, because it is the trigger for cell maintenance and repair. Unfortunately, the older we become, the less DHEA we produce, thereby leaving more and more cells damaged. The ongoing cell damage is responsible for aging.

A number of studies in the USA show a link between obesity and declining DHEA. Obesity is the #1 health problem in North America, along with the growing number of people with adult-onset diabetes. Studies and treatments south of the border have shown DHEA assists in weight loss by regulating metabolism and lowers insulin requirement. DHEA triggers a complex mechanism in which stored fat is moved to the muscles where it is burned off. When muscles are in use, they burn this fat, resulting in stronger muscle tissue and less body fat.

According to American researchers, it takes a surprisingly low dose of DHEA to make a difference. They recommend a mere 50 mg. daily to bring your body back up to its age 30 level of performance. Of course, if you want it to work, you MUST use those muscles!

LIVE WELL FLU SHOT CLINIC

Tuesday, October 19th

We invite you to attend our upcoming Live Well Clinic where a nurse will be administering Flu Shots. Flu Shot Clinic Day will be Tuesday, October 19th between 10:30 AM and 6:30 PM. This service will be offered by appointment only. Please make your appointment at Pharmasave Princeton today as appointment times fill up quickly. Cost will be $18.00 + GST per person.

THE FLU SHOT AND YOU

Influenza or 'the flu' is a viral infection, and according to Health Canada affects between one in four and one in ten Canadians each year. Between 500 and 1,500 Canadians, mostly older adults, die from influenza-related complications every year. You don't need to suffer, however. A flu shot is available to help prevent the infection or reduce the severity of the illness. In fact, the flu vaccine prevents illness in 70-90% of healthy children and adults.

"We're here to give you the advice you need to meet your need."

ALL MAJOR CREDIT CARDS ACCEPTED!

The Baptist Church of Princeton hosted an open house last Saturday afternoon. It attracted many local residents and former pastors who enjoyed some social interaction and memory sharing.

BCTF President

When asked what her biggest challenge as BCTF President was, Simms told the News Leader, "To ensure resources so our teachers can do the best they can with students."

Simms says an increased workload is hurting B. C.'s teachers.

"My caseload was 250 to 1 now we have counsellors with caseloads of 1,000 to 1. That's a huge change in three years."

The News Leader asked what the largest challenge is for small town teachers and Simms was quick to respond.

"Try to meet the needs of students with diminishing resources."

Simms says B. C. teachers spend more money out of pocket to provide the tools required to teach than anywhere else in Canada.

The BCTF President says the teachers and communities have shown they value education services.

"We just need a government that values education as much as the people do."

Baptist Church marks 50th

Princeton's Baptist Church hosted a special celebration Saturday - their 50th anniversary of ministry in Princeton.

The occasion brought many former pastors and out-of-town former members of the Church to a casual gathering.

Mayor Keith Olsen brought words of praise from Town Council and the Town of Princeton to the Church for its many years of service to the community.

All in attendance enjoyed refreshments, flipped through numerous photo albums and shared memories with each other.

The celebration even attracted many local residents who are not members of the Church who wanted to show their appreciation for the contribution the Baptist Church has made to the community.

The Church was first formed in 1954 and was originally meeting in the Orange Hall (now the laundromat on Bridge Street).

After losing a Church building, located on Kenley Avenue, to a fire in 1981, the present building was built.

It was dedicated in 1985.

Railway historian to make presentation

Barrie Sanford is well-known in historical circles and the Okanagan-Similkameen region. Vancouver

Barrie Sanford

Sun columnist Stephen Hume has described him as "British Columbia's best railway historian" and rated his latest book "a gem."

The Princeton and District Museum and Archive Society is hosting a slide presentation by the author on October 16 at the Princeton Castle at 1:00 PM.

Barrie's first full-length work - "McCulloch's Wonder" - hit the best-sellers list when it was released in 1977 and has now sold more than 40,000 copies through nine printings. That book documented the history and excitement of the Kettle Valley Railway, which reached Princeton in 1915 and operated through the local area until 1989. An entirely new edition, with many additional photos, was produced for the book's 25th anniversary in 2002. Barrie has also produced a photo tribute to the Kettle Valley Railway called "Steel Rails and Iron Men."

His most recent book has just been released and will be in stores by the middle of October. That book is titled "Royal Metal - The People, Times and Trains of New Westminster Bridge." Already it has gained critical acclaim as being much more than the title suggests. One critic termed it "...a fascinating social history of the Fraser Valley."

Barrie lives in Brookmere, the former railway town 40 miles up the Tulameen and Otter Valleys from Princeton. His presentation will feature the history of the KVR in the Osprey Lake - Princeton- Otter Lake region.

Planners invited to symposium

Clubs, groups and organizations planning events for 2005 are expected to attend the Princeton Events Calendar Development Symposium.

The event, hosted by Princeton Area Business Enhancement Association, will take place Wednesday, October 20th starting at 6:30 PM in the Princeton Skills Centre.

The purpose of the evening symposium is to gather as many representatives as possible from local community groups and other event planners.

The collection of representatives will then plot their upcoming calendar of events.

There are two main objectives for the symposium.

"We hope to be able to identify all upcoming events with their proposed dates," says BEA President George Elliott.

"The second thing we'd like to achieve is an open discussion surrounding the marketing efforts of the involved organizations."

"If any club or group, be they a church group or a group of individuals who plan particular events for their special interest, is interested in becoming part of the calendar of events process, they are most welcome to attend."

The BEA feels the symposium can contribute to problem solving and proactive planning of many areas of impact of the many activities and events hosted in the Princeton area.

"We will always have events in conflict in respect to dates," Elliott says, "But we hope to be able to partner smaller groups together to see the benefits they can realize in maybe shifting a date or working together to combine events that compliment each other."

Elliott says the partnering of smaller groups also serves a more practical reason.

"Smaller groups are limited in both manpower and funding for marketing. We hope that by partnering smaller groups they can share resources such as volunteers and advertising costs."

Any group or event planner not contacted by the end of this week by the BEA and are interested in participating can contact Sharan Jung at 295-4051 or George Elliott at 295-4149 for more information.

There is no charge to attend the Princeton Events Calendar Development Symposium.

Princeton Posse's Sean McGeough (#27) lines up a shot in Saturday night's game against Spokane.

Posse braves another loss at home

Princeton Posse played host to Spokane Braves last Saturday night.

As Coach Colin Einfeld was part way through a ten day management suspension, Peter McDonald was handling coaching duties.

Spokane kicked the game into gear scoring at 1:12 into the first period.

Following an otherwise uneventful twenty minutes, Spokane was leading 1-0 on the scoreboard - Princeton was leading 15 - 9 in the shots on goal column.

The second period saw Spokane add their second goal at 1:32 and then rapid fired two more at 11:35 and 12:39.

It was at this point in the game Princeton switched goalies and the fighting began.

The Posse got on the scoreboard at 13:14 with a goal by Kevin Flather, assisted by Brandon Ingraham.

The goal appeared to boost the home team's confidence but frustrations on both benches soon erupted into more than one altercation.

With 33 seconds left in the period a disruption on the Spokane bench caused some fans to toss litter on the ice which prompted an announcement that the game would be forfeited to Spokane if the behaviour continued.

By the end of the second period 24 penalties were handed out and Spokane was leading 5 - 1.

Princeton was leading 3 - 2 in Game Misconducts.

The third period saw Spokane with a 2-man advantage and unable to score. They did get a power play goal at 3:14 when they had one extra man.

Spokane scored again at 5:56.

After many attempts, Princeton scored at 13:41 with a 2-man advantage. The goal went to Sean

McGeough with assists to Tony Bertuzzi andcontinued Page 10

Princeton Secondary School Junior Girls Volleyball Team hosted league play last Thursday. Teams in attendance included two PSS entries, Princeton Margaret of Penticton and Keremeos. Above, Princeton scored a point against Keremeos Sparks in the first match of the event.

and Conner Martin.

Princeton scored their final goal of the evening at 18:59 when Eric Lilley got one past the Spokane netminder.

Assists went to David Wyman and Sean McGeough.

Princeton narrowly missed

another goal when a shot hit the Braves goal post.

Eleven more penalties were handed out in the period, all but two of them going to Spokane.

By the end of the game the stats looked like this:

Final score, Spokane 7,

Princeton 3.

Shots on goal: Spokane 39, Princeton 30.

Penalties: Spokane 23, Princeton 16.

Princeton's next home game is Wednesday, October 6th at 7:30 PM against Osoyoos.

Horoscopes
October 7 - 13, 2004

Aries - This week there is a lot of action in your life regarding relationships of all kinds. Your one-on-one encounters with others involve a lot of discussion, sometimes heated. Speak your mind.
Taurus - You may feel a sudden burst of energy which keeps you busy. Action on the job is lively, but you do have to pay attention to your health and guard against colds, flu, and on-the-job careless accidents.
Gemini - Peace around home and family frees you to do some creative activities, such as art, or redecorating your home. This is still a good time to have fun, but the fun will come through being busy.
Cancer - News and more news about family, home, parents - all sorts of blood ties. There could be some fun involved, but most of it will be news. You will have to take small, pleasant journeys or do fun errands.
Leo - Money comes to you through information, and there is plenty of information coming this week. There does not seem to be enough time to do everything. Don't rush. Have your car checked.
Virgo - You need to keep a grip on your cash this week, as you seem to find a lot of ways to spend. You are in a pleasant, happy mood, but things can change fast. Do the math and be sensible about spending.
Libra - You are busy, busy and more busy this week, as you initiate projects or voice your opinion. You could gain a great deal by saying the right thing now. Your mind is at peace, but lazy or hazy.
Scorpio - There is so much going on in your head you can hardly fall asleep at night. Be cautious about this, as it can affect your health. Be careful not to put your foot in your mouth with saying all your thoughts.
Sagittarius - Plans, information, activity - you are swamped with all of these. You have a lot of action with groups you belong to, and you can make good changes in these groups by what you say now.
Capricorn - Your career is still hectic. Information comes at you from everywhere. Try to keep a low profile this week, as you can do or say the wrong thing because there is just too much action. Expect gifts.
Aquarius - Travel will appeal to you now, but do not expect a pleasant or relaxing journey. It will be filled with action, some of it fun, all of it hectic. If you're in school, expect uproar and problems.
Pisces - You need to work at assessing your position in regard to debt, insurance, investments, and resources. Read the fine print and plan ahead. Your partner is very loving toward you now. Enjoy romance.

announcements

The clouds parted and the sun was shining down on the lovely garden setting in Sorrento, BC when Drew Turner and Cindy Pulvermacher said "I do" on September 5th. The Bride was a vision of loveliness in a white princess style dress and a cream rosebud in her hair. The Groom was handsome as ever in a black tuxedo with cream vest and tie. The maid of honour and bridesmaids wore dresses of moss green while the junior bridesmaid and flower girls wore white dress with matching green accents. The best man and groomsmen wore black tuxedos with vests that matched the bridesmaids dresses. After a honeymoon in Banff, the newlyweds returned home to the Lower Mainland.

JIM EYRE
October 5, 2003

*In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart you hold a memory
No one can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you
But you did not go alone.
For a part of me
went with you
The day God called you home.*

Forever loved,
Marg

in memoriam

In memory of
JIM EYRE

Husband, Father,
Grandfather, Friend

The moment you died
Our hearts split in two
The one side filled with memories
The other died with you,
We often lay awake at night
When the world is fast asleep
And we take a walk down memory lane
With tears upon our cheeks.
Remembering you is easy
We do it every day
But missing you is a heartache
That never goes away.
We hold you tightly in our hearts
And there you will remain
Life has gone on without you
But will never be the same.

Forever in our hearts

Marg, Rees, Rhonda, Shaina & Chelsie, Duncan & Lance.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
MINISTRY OF FORESTS
BC TIMBER SALES

EMS TRAINING

Due to ongoing demand for ISO 14001 B. C. Timber Sales (BCTS) Environmental Management System (EMS) training in the Kamloops Business Area, further Level 3 Licensee/Permittee/Contractor training is being provided in the Cascades Field Unit.

This session will be available this year free of charge to all BCTS participants (licensees, permittees/contractors and their employees) who have active agreements and to those participants who may be pursuing future BCTS agreements. In the future this training will be a requirement that you must meet yourself. All groups working under BCTS agreements are required to have this training. Licensees, Permittees and Contractors are encouraged to participate in the EMS at this time. The market place is demanding certification of forest operations and products. Participation in the BCTS EMS allows you access to this emerging market place.

If you and your staff have already attended a BC Timber Sales session within the Province of British Columbia within the last three years, there is no requirement at this time to take further training in the BC Timber Sales ISO 14001 EMS. Note that training from another licensee in EMS certification is not equivalent to the BC Timber Sales training and you are required to attend the BC Timber Sales sessions.

Who should have the training?

- All logging contractors and their employees,
- All road/bridge building contractors and their employees,
- All planning, layout and engineering consultant principals and their project/field supervisors,
- All silviculture contractor principals, their project/field supervisors and employees that operate heavy equipment.

The training will take place, October 12th 2004 from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM local time at the Merritt Civic Centre, located at 1950 Mamette Avenue, Merritt, BC.

Application No. PA-17687

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION NOTICE

Application for a Permit Under The Provisions of the Environmental Management Act

We/I, Compliance Energy Corporation, Suite 584-885 Dunsmuir Street, Vancouver, B. C., V6C 1N5, have submitted this air permit application to the Regional Waste Manager. The purpose of this Environmental Protection Notice is to initiate the public notification process under the Environmental Management Act to obtain an air permit for a proposed thermal plant. The proposed thermal plant would have a nominal nameplate capacity rating of electricity of 49 MW or less. While the proposed project is designed using a blend of wood residue/coal as a fuel, the plant could use coal as its primary fuel depending on the availability of wood residue.

The proposed project would be located on the former Similco mine site near Highway 3, about 14 km South of Princeton. The land upon which the facility is situated and the discharge occurs is District Surface Lot 423, Yale Division Yale District.

The proposed project will be designed to comply with the air emission objectives that were set by the Ministry of Water, Land and Air protection in December 2002. Those objectives are in accordance with the goals of B.
 C.'s Energy for Our Future: A Plan for BC. The proposed thermal plant will also be designed to meet the most restrictive permit emission limits currently used by the Ministry for wood fired power plants or boilers when wood residues are being used as the primary fuel.

The expected rate of discharge (volumetric flow rate of combustion gases) from the thermal plant is 350 m³/s. The provincial emission objectives for coal fired power plants are 10 nanograms per Joule of heat input (ng/J) for particulate, 125 ng/J for nitrogen oxides and 180 ng/J for sulphur dioxide emissions. Those emission limits and the following emission limits for wood residues are being requested on a mass emission rate basis. The corresponding and requested emission limits for thermal plant emissions when burning wood are 20 mg/m³ @ 8% O₂ for particulate and 300 mg/m³ @ 8%
 O₂ for nitrogen oxides.

Low sulphur #2 oil (diesel) would be used for the start-up of the boiler.

Any person who may be adversely affected by the proposed permit and wishes to provide relevant information may, within 30 days after the last date of posting, publishing, service or display, send written comments to the agent for the applicant (F. Marlin Murphy, Consultant, c/o Compliance Energy Corporation, Suite 584, 885 Dunsmuir St., Vancouver, B. C., V6C 1N5), with a copy to the Regional Waste Manager at 102 Industrial Place, Penticton, B. C., V2A 7C8. (The applicant is Compliance Energy Corporation). The identity of any respondents and the contents of anything submitted in relation to this application will become part of the public record.

How to get bicycles and skateboards off of the sidewalks

It has come to our attention there appears to be more and more young bicyclists using the sidewalks these days.

The bright yellow signs spray painted at the end of each block announcing "No Bicycles" are obviously not working.

There has to be a solution and we would never suggest by-law enforcement as it can become very costly for the Town.

When you examine the problem, it's interesting to note downtown businesses have always had the solution right outside their front door.

The sidewalks on Bridge Street and Vermilion Avenue are composed of removable interlocking bricks.

Our solution to the bicycle and skateboard problem is simple.

Remove a strip of the bricks at the centre of each block. Replace it with a 'speed bump' hump or series of humps as are common in mobile home parks.

It's time downtown merchants banned together and took a position on the bicyclists and skateboarders who whiz by with little or no regard for pedestrians and customers using the sidewalks.

For example, our storefront location attracts many elderly residents to the optical office we share space with.

More than once we have had near misses outside our front door and we doubt we are alone with this problem.

Let's press for a solution to this problem before someone gets hurt.

Lali speaks out about the Liberals

Going into the next provincial election Liberal leader Gordon Campbell's war cry should be, "A lie a day as long as the Libs stay," because that is about the pace at which the B.C. Liberals have been misleading the people of British Columbia.

It all started before the 2001 election when the Gordon Campbell Liberals said they would not pay for their massive billions of dollars in tax giveaways to their corporate friends by slashing Health Care, Education, and Social Services, and by raising taxes, fees and levies to lower and middle income earners. Well, the B.C. Liberals lied. After the election they did exactly the opposite of what they promised not to do. And now the Campbell Liberals are lying to the taxpayers again, only this time they are using taxpayers' dollars to do it on national television.

The Liberal Government claim that they have created more jobs than any other province in Canada is a lie. In their misleading TV ads they cite the figure of 154,000 jobs created in B.C. since December, 2001, to bolster their false claim. The Liberals took office in May of 2001 (not December) and immediately went on a drunken spree to kill tens of thousands of public sector jobs, especially by closing schools, hospitals, women's centres, courthouses, government agents' offices and dozens of direly-needed services, especially in small-town, rural British Columbia.

In actual fact, according to Statistics Canada's "Labour Force Survey", the Campbell Liberals lost 40,000 jobs in February this year alone. A further 76,000 jobs were obliterated by the Liberals during the period May, 2001 to December, 2001. That leaves B.C. with a net job gain of only 38,000 - amongst the lowest in Canada - since the Campbell Liberals took office over 3 years ago. Contrast that with the NDP record when B.C. ranked the highest of any province in job growth, and we also had the lowest unemployment rate at 6.6% behind only Ontario.

Amidst false claims in their TV ads the unemployment rate under the Liberals shot up to 9.9% (after giving billions of dollars in tax cuts to their corporate buddies) and stayed there for the better part of their mandate.

Despite some minor employment gains, mostly in the Lower Mainland, high unemployment and lower weekly wages remain the order of the day for far too many families, particularly in Rural British Columbia. Here the Campbell Liberals have cut the heart out of the so-called "heartlands" by their massive cuts to government programs and services. The millions of dollars the Liberals are spending to feed lies to the people of B.C.

Farmer speaks out on local deer problem

Dear Editor:

There is a deer problem in Princeton - so much a problem that deer are becoming aggressive and nobody, not even wildlife managers know what to do about it!

Why ICBC hasn't been screaming about claims I don't understand. We get about 6 dead deer in front of our place every winter.

A new law to stop people from feeding them - come on.

Myself and a hundred other ranchers in the area are TIRED of feeding them. Last year, our own hayfields fed over a hundred of them, all winter long, some have stayed all summer long.

And, the townspeople think they'll go away if some dork down the road stops feeding one!

There is one very simple solution - The ministry of Water, Land and Air Protection start issuing more doe tags for hunters.

To have open season on bucks only, then to issue only 20 limited entry doe tags per area is an extremely poor management practice of any population, encouraging an overpopulation of females and inbred, weak offspring.

It is high time the biologists and wildlife managers started managing.

Current Comment: It is time to be thankful

Dawn Johnson
editor@thenewsleader.ca

Once a year, we have a long weekend called Thanksgiving, and most Canadians take advantage of the fine autumn weather. Generally, it is the best time for family get-togethers before the snow flies. Most of us forget what Thanksgiving is all about. We forget to be thankful for what we have, and thankful for the bad things that did not happen to us. Some people call it an "attitude of gratitude", and this is a good description of being thankful. Thanksgiving is not a recognized holiday in most countries of the world. North America seems to have a corner on Thanksgiving as a national holiday.

Tuning in to the news will give you a lot of reasons to be thankful. When we look at what has happened to Florida this year, and to Haiti, we can be thankful we still have homes and no flooding. Our community is intact. It is easy to forget how good we have life. We take it for granted, and we complain about the little things.

Can you imagine what it is like to live in Iraq right now? What about Bangladesh, where monsoons wiped out crops? We do not have war, and although Canada's grain harvest was not the best, we still have plenty of food in our country.

A lot of the time, I am busy at small tasks and counting my money, wondering if I can afford this, that or the other. Most of what I want would be a luxury in most countries of the world. I forget I am rich in comparison to the majority of people in the world.

We Canadians are rich by comparison to the majority, simply because we care for each other.

Like most people, I take our good life for granted most of the time, but it is a good thing Thanksgiving comes along to remind me to count my blessings. My health is good, my home is warm, I have plenty of food, my children, grandchildren and great-grandchild are healthy and happy. I live in a caring community with a high percentage of good people, and I live in a country where the government is not trying to starve me or kill me. I am blessed with friends, and I have lots of interests to keep me busy and make life meaningful.

These are the blessings worth counting, yet these are the blessings we forget to count most of the time. Thanksgiving reminds us of the need to be thankful for the good things of life, the things we take for granted until we no longer have them.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
I am writing this letter to express my appreciation for the people we have at the local hospital.

Last week I had to take my wife to the emergency ward at PGH for a serious medical problem.

The ward got very busy but the nursing staff continued to work hard and efficiently with the added workload.

They continued to be friendly, caring and kind. They did their job professionally and made an otherwise serious situation for my wife and I much more comforting.

We are so lucky to have such a nursing staff in our little community.
Thank you,
Paul Doré

were paid for by huge cuts to hospitals, courthouses, youth and seniors' programs, battered women's shelters, victims' services, school closures and massive student tuition fees, ICBC, and Hydro rate increases, and the list goes on, and on.

The only way to end this litany of Liberal lies and stop the mean-spirited agenda of Gordon Campbell and his ideologically-driven right wing thugs is to not elect clueless "Liberal" MLAs like David Chutter who don't possess the backbone to stand up to this kind of tyranny. Enough is enough! It's time for a change!

Heart Food

by Dave Machin

Almost from the beginning of time man has thought that to earn God's acceptance, he could do this through his own personal performance. This leads one to think that if we abstain from certain things we are alright with God, or conversely if we do certain things God must be pleased with us. Think about this; if this were true it would reduce God to being no different than a human being (someone who is pleased with good works). These good works, which are primarily measures in externals, cause us to put God in a box of our own making where He is forced to reward us for what we think we earn through our good works. There is a word that describes this. It is the word religion. Two thousand years ago when Jesus walked on the earth one of these religious men came to him one night and said, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher that has come from God, for no one can do the signs that you do unless God is with Him." Jesus simply replied with these words, "To see the kingdom of God you must be born again." The man had no idea what Jesus was talking about, as many people don't today when they hear this term. Jesus was simply referring him back to the spirit with which man was originally created. For you must understand that God created man in His own moral or spiritual likeness. However, when man disobeyed God his spirit died. That is why Jesus said, "You must be born again." What He was saying was that we needed to renounce or repent of taking our own way and ask God to restore His divine nature in us. This will result in you being born a second time after having been born the first time through your earthly mother. The religious man thought that Jesus was talking about entering his mothers womb physically, which made no sense to him. What Jesus was really talking about was your spirit, or inner self, being reborn. So what He was really saying was that to enter the kingdom of God one had to be birthed into it, it was not something you could work your way into based on your own merit. This new birth is something that GOD offers to any person who wants it, thereby eliminating any need for some kind of external performance. We don't need any Religion, just receive new life through GOD's gracious gift to us, as individuals and allow His nature to change us. No need for religion just know that GOD is good, his word is good and GOOD all the time.

Cultural discovery leads to Mascot

EXCLUSIVE TO THE NEWS LEADER
BY W. GEORGE ELLIOTT, PUBLISHER

Princeton's Katimavik participants were treated to an afternoon of historic exploration, courtesy of the Upper Similkameen Indian Band.

The eleven Katimavik youth, their project leader, two members of Princeton Museum and two staff from Similkameen News Leader were escorted by Mascot Mine Tours Guide Derek Lilly on a private and personal tour of the former mine site.

The group had spent most of the previous day on a hike along the Skyline Trail in Manning Park.

Others have attended Princeton Posse hockey games as spectators and to lend a hand when needed selling 50/50 tickets.

Project Leader Krista Mullaney says field trips are a regular element in the Katimavik program.

"It's part of the learning program known as cultural discovery," says Mullaney.

"As the participants will experience different communities the goal is to get them out to see more about the area they are in, anything that is available and adds to the local economy."

Mullaney says the field trips not only teach more about the part of Canada the Katimavik contingent visits, it serves another important purpose.

"The learning program exposes participants to the local culture and also shows them some of the interesting and beautiful things they can experience."

As the current group of eleven Katimavik participants range in age from 17 to 22, there was no doubt on Sunday's trip they were equally impressed and amazed at the development at Mascot Gold Mine Tours.

A handful of them enjoyed the historic site so much they were planning a Katimavik reunion to take place there before their tour had completed.

Princeton Museum President Nick Mills and the Museum's Evelyn McCallum were equally impressed with the development at Mascot.

The News Leader's Brenda Engel also enjoyed the experience of being able to go to a historic place and tour buildings and walk on the actual ground miners worked at when the mine was in operation.

Following the tour all the Katimavik participants could say about the tour was that it was 'pretty interesting' and a 'wonderful experience.'

For the Katimavik participants from other parts of Canada, the scenery added to their own personal experiences at Mascot.

The Upper Similkameen Indian Band's generous offer of a tour for Princeton's Katimavik contingent provided some very special memories for some very special young Canadians.

Lloyd Forman, who is seeking the Liberal Nomination for Yale-Lillooet, stopped by the News Leader office Friday afternoon. Forman, who is from Boston Bar, told us, "I don't have a hidden agenda. I think the community is the key." His plan is to put people ahead of politics.

Fall Fair begins 2010 countdown

The Fall Fair will have a new category of competition next year – the 2010 countdown.

During the Olympics, each nation of the world will come to Canada to compete. This is not the first influx of nations. Immigrants from nations around the world brought their own traditions to add to Canadian culture, and the Fall Fair is asking people who are immigrants, or descended from immigrants, to show what they, and their forefathers, brought to Canadian life. For the next five Fall Fairs, five nations per year will be chosen to show off their contribution to Canadian life. For next year, Fall Fair members chose the following nations: France, Scotland, Germany, Finland and Greece.

Each nation will have a display space, and those with the best displays will receive gold, silver and bronze medals, with a consolation prize to those ranked lowest.

The Fair Board does not expect one individual to make up the display. What the Fair Board hopes is that those of a particular ethnic origin will form a committee to display their nation's impact on Canadian culture.

Let's use Scotland as an example. The Scottish settlers brought us bannock, shortbread, wool and textiles from wool, sheep, oxen and ox carts, dauntless explorers, golfers, curlers and bagpipes, among the many Scottish contributions to Canada. What the Fair Board would expect would be a Scotland committee to present their heritage in a display with examples of these items. Really dedicated committees would include music, dancing, and perhaps taste-testing. The entertainment section could be done on stage, with credit going to the display group.

Now is the time to form your committee and let the Fair Board know you intend to compete for your country of origin. The committee need not be limited to people living in the Princeton area. If a committee wants to bring in people from elsewhere to add to their display, the Fair Board has no objection. Committees should contact Fall Fair Secretary Dawn Johnson at 295-6063 to advise they will be entering a display. If one of the designated nations is without a committee by March 1, 2005, any other group may apply to take its place.

No entry fee will be charged for the Countdown 2010 display spaces, but all of the participants are expected to pay to attend the fair. This fee exemption will not apply to any vendors wishing to participate by piggybacking on the Countdown 2010 – e.g. shortbread and toffee vendors cannot enter free on the pretext they are part of the Scottish display.

At the 2009 Fall Fair, Canada and the United States will be among the designated nations, and will include all of the natural products and First Nations contributions to our way of life.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

The Facts About Systematic Withdrawal

When talking about mutual funds, the focus is often on how to choose a fund or how to buy wisely. With the emphasis on investing, it can be confusing for anyone wondering how to access the money they have invested.

Many mutual fund companies offer the systematic withdrawal option where the fund will send you a regular cheque for a specific amount. This can be a real help to anyone who needs a monthly cheque to help meet living expenses. Most mutual funds with growth-and-income objectives pay quarterly dividends and annual capital gains distribution. Systematic withdrawal allows you to have a part of the total return sent to you each month.

For example, assume a fund has historically averaged a total annual return of 8 percent, consisting of a 2 percent annual dividend and a 6 percent average annual gain. If you set up a systematic withdrawal plan of 6 percent, not only will your principal be untouched, you will still be adding 2 percent a year. As long as the fund earns 8 percent or more, your investment is meeting your goals. If, however, the fund has a bad year, for example, able to maintain its regular 2 percent dividend but realizing no capital gains, your situation changes. Under this scenario, if you continue to withdraw the same amount, the fund will be required to pay some of your request out of your principal to meet your needs, and eventually you would run out of money.

This shouldn't scare you, it just means you need to be flexible. If total returns decrease, lower your withdrawal amount to reflect that. By taking smaller withdrawals, you can monitor your investment until the principal grows and you've built a cushion, or you can delay starting your withdrawal until the initial investment has grown.

Posse serves lunch weekly at restaurant

Princeton Posse and Princeton Dairy Queen have joined forces again this hockey season.

John Babiak, Dairy Queen owner/operator, invites local residents to meet their KIJHL hockey team players as they provide table service to customers.

Posse players will be at Dairy Queen between 11:30 AM and

1:30 PM Wednesdays.

This is the second year this service has been provided.

"It goes over great for both parties," Babiak says.

"It generates revenue for the Posse as certain menu items, when purchased, earns the team a dollar from each."

Last year the hockey club was able to raise close to $2,000 from their efforts at Dairy Queen.

The Wednesday Meet The Posse lunches started September 29th and will run during the hockey season.

"It provides residents and fans a chance to meet and talk to the players and coaches about the team and the season."

Better Health Care for Canadians: A 10-year plan

Working together, the Prime Minister, Premiers and Territorial leaders have signed a 10-year plan, supported by $41 billion in new federal funding, that will lead to better health care for Canadians.

Better Health Care

- Reduce waiting times
 - Improve access so that Canadians don't wait as long for key tests, treatments and surgeries
- More Doctors, Nurses and other Health Professionals
 - Plans to train and hire more health professionals while also developing faster accreditation for foreign-trained health professionals
- Expand home care
 - Provide better support for people being cared for or recovering at home
- Improve access to family and community care
 - Increase 24/7 access to doctors, nurses and other health professionals
- Better Access to Needed Medicines
 - A commitment to manage drug costs and ensure that no family is forced to choose between needed medicines and financial ruin
- Improved Aboriginal Health
 - New investments and better planning to close the gap between Aboriginals and other Canadians in terms of health

Shorter Waiting Times

The federal, provincial and territorial governments have committed to report clearly on the progress we are making in health care and, for the first time will report on progress in reducing waiting times.

- Comparable indicators ... so we can measure
 - Federal, provincial and territorial governments will use comparable information to report their progress in improving access to doctors, and to diagnostic and treatment procedures
- Benchmarks ... so we know what we are striving for
 - Federal, provincial and territorial governments will set medically acceptable waiting times – based on advice from medical experts – starting with cancer, heart disease, diagnostic imaging, joint replacement, and sight restoration
- Targets ... to drive change
 - Provincial and territorial governments will set their own targets and report annually to citizens on progress in reducing waiting times

Canadians will see for themselves where their health care money is going and how it is making a difference.
