Deborah Alexis Cappos

(1950 - 2015)

Deborah Alexis Cappos left us this month to continue her journey. Deborah was born in Kamloops, BC on August 25th, 1950 to the late Louie and Ruby Cappos. She was exceptionally talented, possessing a keen and analytical mind. Deborah achieved a B.Ed. specializing in Women's studies and Fine Arts and was a mentor to many. She taught grade K to 12 throughout her teaching career and was passionate about making a difference in her Students lives.

Deborah was known and admired for her talent and ability to create 'amazing things.' Her extensive talents included designing and creating anything and everything with a sewing machine from elaborate wedding dresses to the stylish everyday clothing she wore.

Deborah was also known for her lifelong interest in theatre and the arts, participating as both an actress and a costume designer. Deborah was also well known for her time working as a director with Mary Kay.

Deborah had a selfless devotion to her friends and family, often traveling great distances to be with the one's she loved. While on the road, Deborah enjoyed setting up camp and finding peace in nature while sharing her love for the outdoors. She loved to share stories and was always so proud of everyone in her life.

Deborah is survived and will be missed by two daughters: Shelann and husband Paul; grandsons Alexander and Shea Andersen; Daughter Jenny Armitage and fiancée Dustin Quinlan; her sister Linnea; her nephew Luke and his family, and numerous friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held Sunday, June 21st at 1:00 PM at Riverside Centre. As Deborah was a lifelong teacher and learner, her daughters have requested that in lieu of flowers donations be accepted at the Deborah Cappos Memorial Fund at Valley First Credit Union, Princeton Branch in support of a bursary yet to be named.
