

ALVINA CHERNEY

November 15, 1935 -

November 10, 2015

Born in Weirdale, Saskatchewan

Alvina left home at 15 years old and made her way to the interior of BC.

She worked hard over her lifetime in a wide variety of occupations: nurse's aide, mill worker, upholsterer, seamstress, and apartment manager. Throughout her lifetime her hobbies included home renovations, gardening and sewing for her family. She was a talented and practical lady who was very skilled in everything that she did.

Alvina is survived by daughters Tracy (Brent) Buck and Jackson Holland; grandchildren Wynter (Chris) Oakes, Rita Jules, Jacob Blais, and Levi Dube; great grandchildren Storm Buck and Symphony Oakes. She was predeceased by son Mark Holland and grandson Skye Buck and his family.

No service, by request.
