

John GOLOVIN

Sep 1, 2013 / OBITUARIES

JOHN (1926-2013):

A Husband, (predeceased by his wife Betty of 61 years); A Father of Donna, Debbie (Doug), Sherry (Glen), Sandy and Jamie; A Grandfather, Great Grandfather and Great Great Grandfather and many Friends.

John will be remembered as a Jack of all trades and a master of many. He was a Plumber, Builder, and Fireman (Captain). John had a love for tinkering in his garage building and welding anything from Dune Buggies, Trikes, Go Carts and even a Merry-Go-Round to mention a few. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, a real outdoors-man. Most of all he will be remembered as a wonderful caring father. He will be sadly missed and will forever live in our hearts. A Celebration of Life was held in Princeton, BC on September 22nd with family and close friends.
