Lorraine enjoyed them and loved them all wonderfully. She was predeceased by her husband John and their daughter Kim. In Lorraine’s day, she was a “crack” shot and enjoyed hunting and fishing with her husband.

She “took no prisoners” while playing cards. Lorraine’s passions included tole painting, biking, skiing and putting “miles on her sneakers.” Family and friends will remember her as a feisty, but very caring person. She led a full and rich life filled with love right up to her end.

We would like to “Thank” the many caregivers, nurses and Doctor Monro for the thoughtful care that made Lorraine’s final days comfortable.

A memorial gathering will be announced at a later date.
