

DENIS WILLIAM PERCIVAL

Died Saturday August 6, 2016

Denis William Percival was born at Hoyland Common, Sheffield, England, on March 20, 1929. He died peacefully at this residence at Ridgewood Lodge in Princeton BC at 1:30 am on August 6, 2016. His family was at his side.

Her served in both the Royal Navy and the Merchant Marine Navy, as a merchant fisherman/first mate, on trawlers from Hull, East Yorkshire.

In 1968 Denis moved to Saudi Arabia to work for British Airspace as a diesel engineer for eight years.

He moved to Canada in 1977, then to Princeton in 1979. He served for many years as a volunteer for the Penticton Coast Guard on Okanagan Lake. He was a keen fisherman and gardener.

Denis was predeceased by his loving wife Irene, on December 31, 2008. He leaves behind his children; daughter Sharon, his son John (Zerlina), beloved granddaughter, Gemma, and devoted dog, Buddy.

He was a "good man", a loving and devoted husband and father to the end. He was loved and will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

A Service of Remembrance will be held in Ferriby, East Yorkshire, England. His ashes will be taken to Scarborough, North Yorkshire, to be spread with his father William, and scattered in the North Sea.

"Although your 'physical body' is gone, your beautiful 'spirit' lives on Dad. Rest in Peace."

"AT THE SETTING OF THE SUN, AND IN THE MORNING, WE SHALL REMEMBER HIM."
