

Ronald Lomax

Aug 11, 2011 / OBITUARIES

Lomax, Ronald

March 14, 1932 – August 11, 2011

Ronald Lomax of Penticton and Princeton, B.C., passed away peacefully on August 27, 2011 at the age of 79 years. He went to his final rest at his retirement home in Qualicum B.C., while surrounded by family, after many years of battling Alzheimer's.

Ron was born March 14, 1932 in Hebden Bridge, England. His father was a soldier in WW2 and was away for most of Ron's young teen years.

Ron helped his mother with his four younger siblings during this time, gaining strong family values and work ethics.

He married Marion Wilkinson on December 24, 1949. They had been together for 57 years when she passed away in 2006.

Ron came to Canada in 1956 and worked to bring his wife and three boys to join him the following year.

After originally living in Ontario the family moved to B.C. where they settled in Princeton for over 25 years.

Ron worked in the mining industry, and then the logging industry, for many years before taking early retirement.

He is survived by his five children, nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Ron was preceded in death by his loving wife and their infant daughter.

In Princeton, a service was held at the United Church on May 18, 2012 at 2:00 p.m.

In Penticton, a graveside service was held on May 19, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. at the Penticton Cemetery where both Ron and Marion will rest together.