King, Timothy blare

November 7, 1962 – February 22, 2011

Timothy passed away unexpectedly in Chilliwack, BC.

He is survived by his daughter Heather (Scott) McCarron of Princeton, son Chad (Amber) King of Alberta, six brothers, & two sisters, and his grandson Andrew.

A mighty wind blew night and day.

It stole the oak tree's leaves away,

Then snapped its boughs, and pulled its bark,

until the oak was tires and stark.

But still the oak tree held its ground,

while other trees fell all around...

The weary wind gave up and spoke,

"How can you still be standing, Oak?"

The oak tree said, "I know that you can break each branch of mine in two,

carry every leaf away, shake my limbs, and make me sway.

But I have roots stretched in the earth,

growing stronger since my birth.

You'll never touch, for you see,

they are the deepest part of me.

Until today, I wasn't sure of just how much I could endure.

But now I've found, with thanks to you,

I'm stronger than I ever knew."
